

SUPPORT SERVICES

Our Resource program teachers assess students with special needs, plans programs for them in consultation with classroom teachers, and consult with staff, parents and District personnel to further facilitate students' learning.

Learning assistance also works in conjunction with the resource program, but acts on a shorter-term basis with individual or small groups of students who have less severe learning difficulties.