When a small runt is born in a litter of pigs on the Arable farm, Fern, the Arables' daughter adopts the pig and names it Wilbur. After Wilbur is moved to the Zuckerman's farm, his adventures there bring him into contact with Templeton the rat, various sheep, a goose, and a talented spider - Charlotte. It is Charlotte who becomes Wilbur's closest friend and who saves him from becoming breakfast bacon when she weaves words into her web in praise of Wilbur. The author is E.B. White. Included with the books is a novel study guide, and an activity guide with response activities created by Sylvia Bishop and Rhona Davies. The adapted material presented in the activity guide has been developed by learning assistance, resource room, and classroom teachers and can be used with slow learners, learning disabled students, and others.
